Niswarth seva sankalp trust

“Niswarth seva sankalp trust” established in 2021 by an eminent socialist Mrs. Shakuntala devi and Her Son, who are actively involved in social service from more than 10 years. By inspiring their own journey of life, NSST has been founded with some core social issues related to health, education, sanitation, old age orphan parents, child labour and women empowerment.

NSST imagination is to see the nation in new frame. When there would no child die because lack of treatment, no one crushes their dreams to get a quality education, not a single mother loses their child because of scarcity and money. With this extraordinary dream we started our journey from a very basic level and giving our level hard to serve the society.

Niswarth seva means “Seva without personal interest” -itself defines our motive towards the society. With a journey of my life of about 55 years, I found several social issues that has to be eradicate, for the same reason we started our mission in year 2021 with my son.

If we can save a life or we can avail quality education to underprivileged children, if we can work for the orphan parents who have been left in old age by their belonging ones, if we can work for the physically challenged orphan children, if we can give our bit share in Nation buildup, if we can reduce domestic violence and empower women- then I can think that the mission of NISWARTH SEVA is on progress....

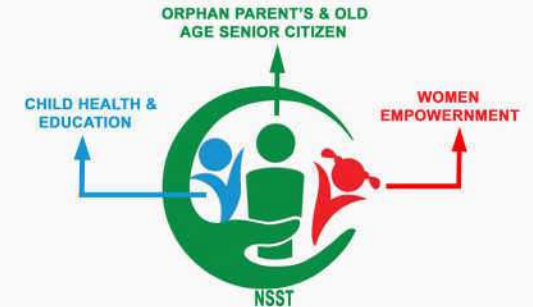

Although, it will take time of years to meet our objectives as “No plant start giving fruits until unless it became a tree in years” – but we have a strong believe that one day our tree i.e. NSST definitely meet our objectives.....

-Mrs. Shakuntala Devi – Founder of NISWARTH SEVA SANKALP TRUST

Introduction:

We at NSST supports and advocate for children of minor age with having various social, health educational, economic, issues across India. Apart from children we are also taking care of women and senior citizen orphan parents /adults in various manners. We partner with NGOs and government to provide care and education, and to advocate for better services for such kind of children. NSST itself a sign of transparency, care and hope for the Nation. NSST established under the supervision of well-known eminent socialist Mrs. Shakuntala devi in 2021. She is serving the society from more than 10 years. On various social issue.

Social activities of NSST: NSST working in HEALTH & EDUCATION among high risk population and provide comprehensive care & support to children who are suffering with life threatening disease like cancer, hole in heart, thalassemia etc. in all over the India. NSST not only work in the field of health & education but also dedicatedly work to empower the women and child labour. During our service in Health & education , we realized that there is so many NGO's working in the field of cancer but that one is insufficient to fulfil the requirements of cancer patients and we should start our work in the field of cancer too. Also there was the huge demand from the poor and needy people who were infected by cancer. Hence was started our work for the people infected and affected with cancer from july 2021.

Our Mission: The mission of NSST a non-profit organization based in India is to provide financial, medical, educational & support to people affected with life threatening disease. Prevention & education on anti-social elements and cancer & to work for the upliftment of poor infected and affected by cancer and other life threatening disease.
